RELEASE

There are risks associated with practicing Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, and by choosing to take part you are assuming a degree of risk, including risk of physical injury. Saber Brazilian Jiu-jitsu and its instructors take all reasonable care to keep you safe at training, but it is a condition of your enrolment that you agree to release Saber Brazilian Jiu-jitsu from any liability arising in the course of your training. Please read the following points carefully and then sign the release form below. If you are under 18, please have your parent or legal guardian read the form carefully and sign below on your behalf.

1. I understand that practicing Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu involves the risk of physical injuries.
2. I affirm that I am in good physical condition and do not have any injuries or conditions that may impact on my training or lead to the risk of injury that I have not discussed with the responsible instructor.
3. I agree to indemnify and hold harmless Saber Brazilian Jiu-jitsu, and their instructors for any injury or harm that occurs to me in the course of my training, howsoever arising. In particular, I agree to waive any claim that I might have against Saber Brazilian Jiu-jitsu and their instructors, howsoever arising, expressly including claims that arise from the negligent act or omission of Professor Paul Sayers or any other instructor, member or participant in training.
4. I agree to indemnify and hold harmless Saber Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, and their instructors, for any loss, harm or injury that occurs as a result of the condition or nature of the premises used for training.
5. I agree to hold Saber Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, and their instructors, harmless for any loss or damage to my possessions associated with training, howsoever arising, including through the negligence of any person associated with Saber Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu.
